MADLY IN LOVE

With the Pastor of St. John's M. E Church.

ORANGE, N. J., July 31 .- Rev. William C. Jason, pastor of St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church here, was assailed Episcopal Church here, was assailed yesterday by Miss Adelaide Brown, a member of his church, who was armed with a horsewhip. Mr. Jason is a graduate of Drew Seminary, and has been in charge of the church for about a year. It is claimed that Miss Brown showed him a good deal of attention and sent him presents and love tokens. He wrote a letter saying that he was not in love with her, and she then asked to have her name taken from the church roll.

While Mr. Jason was in his study yesterday morning Miss Brown knocked at the door and entered the room. She immediately drew a cowhide and struck the minister a number of stinging blows. He wrenched the whip from her hand and put her out of the room and then went to the police station and swore out a warrant for her. Detective Conroy arrested the young woman in the afternoon in the house of Mr. Bliss, in Evergreen Place, East Orange, where she is employed as a domestic. She was arraigned and refused to give ball, saying that she wanted to go to juli. She was thereupon committed to the county jail. The young woman is thought to be out of her head. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 31.-Dr. L. E. Niles this morning filed suit for divorce against his wife, Paula De Branco Niles, in the Common Pleas Court. The petition is quite lengthy. The petitioner accused Mrs. Niles of gross neglect of duty during the past six months in that she had refused to live or cohabit with her husband, and to fulfil her duties as

It further expresses a belief that from the action of Mrs. Niles it is her intention to either secrete their two children in this country or spirit them out of the country. Mrs. Niles now has the custody of the children, and Dr. Niles states that she farmed one of them out with people of whom he does not approve. He also accuses Mrs. Niles of violent temper, almost insane jealousy and in-compatibility, and intimates that his life with her was a hell on earth, owing to their inability to agree. Mrs. Niles is trying to make a living for herself and children teaching music, French and Spanish in this city.

NARROW ESACPE

From a Terrible Disaster on Long Island

New HAVEN, CONN., July 31 .- As the steamer Elm City, which left New York at 7 o'clock last night with about 1,300 excursionists on board, was about half way between New York and Bridgeport, fire broke out over the boiler room near the port paddle wheel and blazed up in a most plarming manner. The flames were mostly below deck, but a dense black smoke curled up which struck terror to the hearts of the passengers. The excitement on board was intense, and for a few minutes amounted almost to a panic. Women screamed, and the and for a few minutes amounted almost to a panic. Women screamed, and the little ones clung to their mothers. A man and women in state room 49, which is immediately over the boiler, were almost [suffocated by the smoke which filled the room. The prompt work of the officers of the boat was the only thing that averted an awful disaster. The overheated boiler ignited the wood work in the engine room. A few of the work in the engine room. A few of the women fainted during the fire, but no one was seriously injured.

"Dr. Baker came to see me the day after the funeral of his wife. About four days afterwards we were criminally intimate. He had his sale December 10 and moved to Abingdon afterward. About the first day of May, after the Petters were found, Mr. Summer came to my house to arrest me, and said he had the three warrants against me and Dr. Bakerr. My brother was there and advised me to tell the truth. I was taken before Squire Cunningham. Deputy Sheriff Counts was there.

"Dr. Baker told me he put deadly poison in one of the vials prescribed for Mr. Gilmer by his brother, Dr. Gilmer. I saw him put it in. He said a teaspoonful would accomplish the purpose. I was arrested in the parlor in the house afterward; on leaving the room I went and got two of the vials and gave them to Col, Summers. Lou Gilmer and the persons nursing Mr. Gilmer administered the most of the medicine. Dr. Baker gave some of it to him."

Rapidly Dwindling in Public Estimation and His Cause Going to the Dogs--Prominent Parnellites Sec Their Hopes Waning.

Copyrighted by the New York Associated Press. LONDON, July 31.—Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien's repudiation of Parnell, though a foregone conclusion, has profoundly depressed the Parnellites, who relied upon a belief that both would suspend a public pronouncement.

Mr. Parnell sought, through private communications made on the ever of their release, to resume negotiations, but neither responded to these secret overtures. Mr. Parnell hoped until the last moment yesterday that he would again entangle them in manouvres for a reunion. Their prompt and decisive declarations as soon as they were outside the prison doors, and their refusal to any advances from the Par-fell like a death blow on the

The last flicker of hope went out when the Lord Mayor of Dublin and other devoted Parnellites vanly tried to induce Mr. O'Brien, who was sup-posed to be more ductile than Mr. Dil-lon, to reconsider the position. Mr. O'Brien bluntly declined a renewal of the Boulouse negotiations or any 39-O'Brien bluntly declined a renewal of the Boulonge negotiations or any ap-proach thereto.
